The Armed Forces Covenant

An Enduring Covenant Between

The People of the United Kingdom
His Majesty's Government

- and -

All those who serve or have served in the Armed Forces of the Crown

And their Families

The first duty of Government is the defence of the realm. Our Armed Forces fulfil that responsibility on behalf of the Government, sacrificing some civilian freedoms, facing danger and, sometimes, suffering serious injury or death as a result of their duty. Families also play a vital role in supporting the operational effectiveness of our Armed Forces. In return, the whole nation has a moral obligation to the members of the Naval Service, the Army and the Royal Air Force, together with their families. They deserve our respect and support, and fair treatment.

Those who serve in the Armed Forces, whether Regular or Reserve, those who have served in the past, and their families, should face no disadvantage compared to other citizens in the provision of public and commercial services. Special consideration is appropriate in some cases, especially for those who have given most, such as the injured and the bereaved.

This obligation involves the whole of society: it includes voluntary and charitable bodies, private organisations, and the actions of individuals in supporting the Armed Forces. Recognising those who have performed military duty unites the country and demonstrates the value of their contribution. This has no greater expression than in upholding this Covenant.

Section 1: Principles of The Armed Forces Covenant

1.1 We, 1Spatial Group Ltd, will endeavour to uphold the key principles of the Armed Forces Covenant:

- Members of the Armed Forces Community should not face disadvantages arising from their service in the provision of public and commercial services.
- In some circumstances special provision may be justified, especially for those who have given the most, such as the injured or bereaved.

Section 2: Demonstrating our Commitment

2.1 We recognise the contribution that Service personnel, reservists, veterans, the cadet movement and military families make to our organisation, our community and to the country. We will seek to uphold the principles of the Armed Forces Covenant by:

- Supporting Reservists by offering them additional days of annual leave (paid/unpaid) in order to carry out their duties.
- Guaranteed Interview Scheme (GIS) for veterans and reservists.
- Providing and/or promote training, such as e-learning, for 1Spatial staff on the Armed Forces Community.
- Promoting the Armed Forces Covenant, the Defence Employer Recognition Scheme and 1Spatial's support for the Armed Forces Community to staff, customers/service users, supply chains and the wider public.
- Supporting or promoting Armed Forces events, such as Armed Forces Day/Week, Reserves Day, the Poppy Appeal and Remembrance activities.
- Using the Covenant and Employer Recognition Scheme logos in 1Spatial communications and marketing.
- Creating a dedicated Armed Forces page on 1Spatial's website.
- Establishing an internal Armed Forces Network within 1Spatial, to enable staff members with an Armed Forces connection to meet and support one another and provide feedback.
- Appoint an Armed Forces Champion within 1Spatial to act as a focal point for organising and promoting support for the Armed Forces Community.

2.2 We will publicise these commitments through our literature and/or on our website, setting out how we will seek to honour them and inviting feedback from the Armed Forces Community and our customers on how we are doing.
